

How will I know what spam (junk mail) is collecting for my account?

You will receive a Daily Digest email once a day with a link to access your spam. (See an example of the email at the bottom of this page)

How do I gain access to the settings of my spam?

There are two ways to access spam:

1. Go to Greymail.redcondor.net/console
2. From the Daily Digest email, click My Account (see the diagram below)

How long does my spam remain at this site?

Everything older than 35 days is automatically deleted.

How can I change how often I get the Daily Digest email?

Once you are logged into the spam mail system, simply click the Settings tab (see diagram below). You have three choices: Never, Daily or Weekly. Simply choose the preferred option.

What if mail is quarantined, at this site, but is not spam?

You may release the mail in two ways:

1. Highlight the message and simply click the View button. Once you have clicked View, you will see options displayed at the bottom.
2. Click the Messages tab, highlight the message you want, then click Release and it will be forwarded to your inbox.

How can I block certain emails from coming to my inbox?

From the Daily Digest email, click My Account, then click on the Policies tab, scroll down to where it says Enemies, type the email address in the field and then click the plus (+) sign. To remove the email address, click on the email address and then hit the red x.
